

PRESIDENT SPENCER MET SUDDEN DEATH

President of Southern Railway
Killed in Rear-End Collision.

HIS BODY IS BURNED

One of the Most Widely Known and Most Competent Railroad Officials in United States, and Built the Southern Up to a High Standard.

Washington, Nov. 29.—President Samuel Spencer, of the Southern Railway, was killed this morning in a wreck which occurred at Lawyer, eleven miles south of Lynchburg. At the general offices of the Southern Railway the following statement was issued: "Southern Railway passenger train, No. 33, left Washington last night for Jacksonville. Owing to the congested holiday traffic, at 6:30 a. m., at Lawyer, Va., on a portion of the road protected by the block system, the train was stopped for slight repairs to a coupling. Passenger train No. 37 was following No. 33, and being given a clear block, ran into the rear of No. 33, resulting in the serious wreck. Advices indicate the collision was due to the negligence of the operator in allowing No. 37 to pass the block. President Spencer and a party of friends were in the officer's car at the rear of No. 33.

Spencer's Body Burned.

President Spencer's body was burned beyond recognition. Philip Schuyler of New York, of Mr. Spencer's party, was also killed, as was Mr. Spencer's special train dispatcher, D. W. Davis, of Alexandria, and Engineer Terry, and Mr. Spencer's private secretary, Mr. Merrill. One man, not yet identified, was also killed. Eight negroes were injured, one probably fatally. President Spencer's private coach was entirely burned. The party was on a hunting trip South.

TWENTIETH-CENTURY CLUB.

Interesting Meeting at Home of Mrs. A. M. Cushman Monday.

The meeting of the Twentieth Century Club, held at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Cushman on Monday, December 26th, was an occasion of more than usual enjoyment, and a large attendance testified to the well sustained interest in club affairs.

After the discussion and disposal of the accumulated business, the most entertaining item of which was the excellent financial report of the treasurer, the leader of the day, Mrs. Tench, took the chair, and the literary program was inaugurated. The important feature of this was an excellent paper prepared by Mrs. A. R. Harper on "The Tudor Sovereigns of England," which was supplemented by some personal incidents of the Shakespeare country from Mrs. Medlin, a brief selection on the same subject read by Mrs. Phillips, and another interesting bit of English history read by Mrs. Chapin. Very general table talk upon the subject under discussion followed, and when the gathering twilight forced a reluctant dispersal, it was with a general regret that the good-byes were uttered.

The club has inaugurated the year's work under most auspicious conditions. The membership is full, the scope of work considerably enlarged, and the very general interest manifested indicates that the work will be conscientiously performed.

The fact that the next Federation of Woman's Clubs will meet in Gainesville at the invitation of the Twentieth Century Club, will prove an incentive to energy, even if the work itself were not so interesting.

WOMEN BATTLE WITH NEGRO.

Criminal Assault Is Prevented by a Desperate Resistance.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 30.—John Simms, the wife of a prominent merchant, and Miss Florence McKeehan fought a negro for twenty minutes to prevent him accomplishing both burglary and criminal assault. In the fight Mrs. Simms was choked almost to death and beaten until her clothes were covered with blood.

When the two women were totally exhausted and prone upon the floor of the kitchen of Mrs. Simms' home, her husband arrived, and the negro fled. At this time every officer in the police department and every deputy sheriff and constable are scouring the city and suburbs, searching for the negro. Excitement runs high and if he is caught a lynching will follow.

The negro hid in the house and waited for the woman to return from shopping. Both Mrs. Simms and Miss McKeehan gave an accurate description, and it is believed that his capture will take place before morning. Bloodhounds have been wired for, and will be on the trail in the morning if the negro is not captured before then.
